Re:                   Respondent: Brian Robbins
Case No.:       05-3207

Dear Ms. Warren:

I have received your latest correspondence dated April 28th, 2006. You state that “[y]our complaint and all supplemental information you provide in your June 19, 2005 and September30 [sic], 2005 letters have been reexamined as part of the internal review process.” As anticipated, your primary focus is to protect your paying members like Mr. Robbins instead of performing the duties described on your web site; therefore, I'm not interested in gathering further documents as it's apparent it'll be a waste of time and effort. Moreover, from looking at the HALT.org web site, they've given the California Bar a grade of D+. I'm surprised your rating was this high after my dealings with you. In the end, I see why you're “practicing law” at the California State Bar Association.

Unfortunately, due to your actions, you've left me with no choice but to establish an anti-California Bar web site hence I've registered the domain name of www.cabarsucks.org. Moreover, I'll scan all our correspondence into my new web site and we'll let the court of public opinion decide who's right and who is wrong. The site should be up and running by the time you receive this letter. In addition, I'll more than likely register some variant of your name and point this to the web site as well. Furthermore, hopefully, I have a recording of my conversation with Mr. Robbins which will become part of the web site as well.

Sorry it has come to this but you've left me with no other alternatives.

Good Luck,
