

XXXXX
XXXXXXXXXX
XX
XXXXXX

June 19th, 2005

Office of the Chief Trial Counsel/Intake
State Bar of California
1149 South Hill Street
Los Angeles, California 90015-2299

Re: Complaint against Brian J. Robbins, Inquiry Number: 05-3207

Dear Ms. McGee:

I'm writing your office in response to your letter dated June 2, 2005. Moreover, per your letter, I'm requesting a review of my complaint. Naturally, you've either mis characterized or just ignored parts of my complaint.

Mr. Robbins states that he never promised to file for Lead Plaintiff compensation. Unfortunately, this is a lie on Mr. Robbins part. I've enclosed a copy of the form he said he would submit to the courts and the email he sent with the form attached. By sending me this form, this is a classic example of Mr. Robbins keeping me on the "hook" long enough for Mr. Robbins to reap monetary benefits. Moreover, Mr. Robbins never even discussed any terms of the settlement with me even though I was the lead plaintiff. In you letter, Mr. Robbins states that I received benefits from the settlement. I challenge the state bar to provide me with one benefit I received from this settlement. As for Mr. Robbins other lie about taking me out to dinner the next he was in town, this part of my complaint was completely ignored.

As anticipated, I'm not surprised by your "findings" since it's obvious the state bar's objective is to protect the interest of their "paying" members. In the end, Mr. Robbins and the state bar have left me with no choice but to scan in all documents and convert any phone recordings in order to establish a web site warning people of Mr. Robbins's law firm.

Regards,

XXXXXX